

www.freepressjournal.in | twitter.com/fpjindia
REG. NO. MCS/048/2016-20; RNI NO. 1541/1957 | M.P.C.S office Mumbai-400001

THE FREE PRESS JOURNAL

₹2

Vol. 63 No. 143

MUMBAI | MONDAY | NOVEMBER 4, 2019

DISTRIBUTIONS : Mumbai, Pune, Indore, Bhopal

Palghar Perspective

WHAT: Contemporary and semi-realistic painter Richa Agrawal will be showcasing her impressions of the lives of people in Palghar, at her solo show titled 'Palghar Perspective'. As the Managing Trustee at Samta Foundation, Richa will also be unveiling the Samta Art Initiative to benefit rural artisans on this occasion. It was during a visit to the interiors of Palghar that Richa mingled and interacted with the local women, being deeply drawn into the contrast of their daily challenges and sweet joys. She came back inspired by what she saw and framed her emotions on canvas. I define this series as the lives of tribal girls and women in their natural abodes in Palghar. It captures the personal impressions they made on me. I have filtered the characters that I connect with, creating simple imagery that is relatable to all. Dedicated to my mother figures, each of my paintings is a window and a true expression of my emotions," says Richa Agrawal.

WHEN: November 9 to 11, 11 am to 7 pm

WHERE: The Bombay Art Society, Opp. Rangsharda, KC Marg, Bandra Reclamation, Bandra (West), Mumbai

CONTACT: 9821151070

WEBSITE: www.samtafoundation.org

